Although you rarely hear from me, I love what you are doing and read your newsletter entirely each time I receive it. It is so well written and so relevant. There are few articles I find that I am so unequivocally excited to share with others, especially my "intellectual" friends."

BAR HARBOR, MAINE:

"I enjoy very much your pieces in the Bangor Daily News weekly religion column. Since Chronic Fatigue/Immune Dysfunction Syndrome now keeps me almost completely housebound to the point where I can no longer attend church, these pieces are especially meaningful for me."
